

? Is giving through a community foundation right for your clients?

Do you have clients who are passionate about supporting the lives of Melburnians?

Would they benefit from learning about the current issues and emerging needs facing Greater Melbourne?

Have your client's financial circumstances changed, for example, they may have sold a business, received an inheritance or their children have become independent?

Do they want to be more engaged with their philanthropy and connect with like-minded donors?

Are they considering establishing a standalone charitable trust, but are concerned about the cost, administration and governance responsibilities?

As Australia's largest and oldest community foundation, Lord Mayor's Charitable Foundation recognises the value of partnerships and collaboration. Professional advisers are key stakeholders working in partnership with us to inspire thoughtful, strategic and effective philanthropy. Our role is to offer support and resources to complement the quality service professional advisers provide to their clients, helping donors to experience the joy of giving and understand how their philanthropic endeavours are creating meaningful change in society.

The important role of professional advisers in promoting philanthropy

We understand how important the role of a trusted adviser is in helping your clients get started with their philanthropy.

Donors are driven to philanthropy through a desire to act on their values, make a difference in their communities and show appreciation for what they have received in life. By discussing your client's charitable motivations, values and passions, you have an opportunity to extend and deepen your relationship with them and help them achieve their philanthropic aspirations and goals.

With Australia about to experience the greatest transfer of generational wealth in our nation's history, philanthropy will play a critical role in the health and prosperity of future generations. As a professional adviser, you are in a unique position to have an early conversation with your clients and provide the right guidance and support. You can be part of their philanthropic journey.

By facilitating your client's desire to do something meaningful with their philanthropy, you can be part of creating transformational social change.
